Location

Our office is located in Hertfordshire on the outskirts of Greater London. We are near to the M1 (junction 2) and M25 (junction 23). Stirling Way is just off the A1 Northbound by Stirling Corner. Our office is located half way along Stirling Way in a small service road, the IPH Insurance building and Topps Tiles is on the corner of our service road.

By Train

The nearest station is Elstree & Borehamwood, which is on the First Capital Connect Service. Direct trains include those running from St Pancras International and Luton Airport. From the station we are a five minute cab journey, taxis are always available at the station. Alternatively buses 107 and 292 stop within a short walk of our office.

By Car

Drive to Stirling Corner, which is the junction of the A1 and A411. This can be reached via the Southbound carriageway of the A1 when leaving the M25 or the Northbound carriageway of the A1 when travelling from London via the A41. See 'Location' above for detailed directions from here. Parking is available in Stirling Way or in our service road, alternatively call us when nearby and we will advise where to park in our car park.
